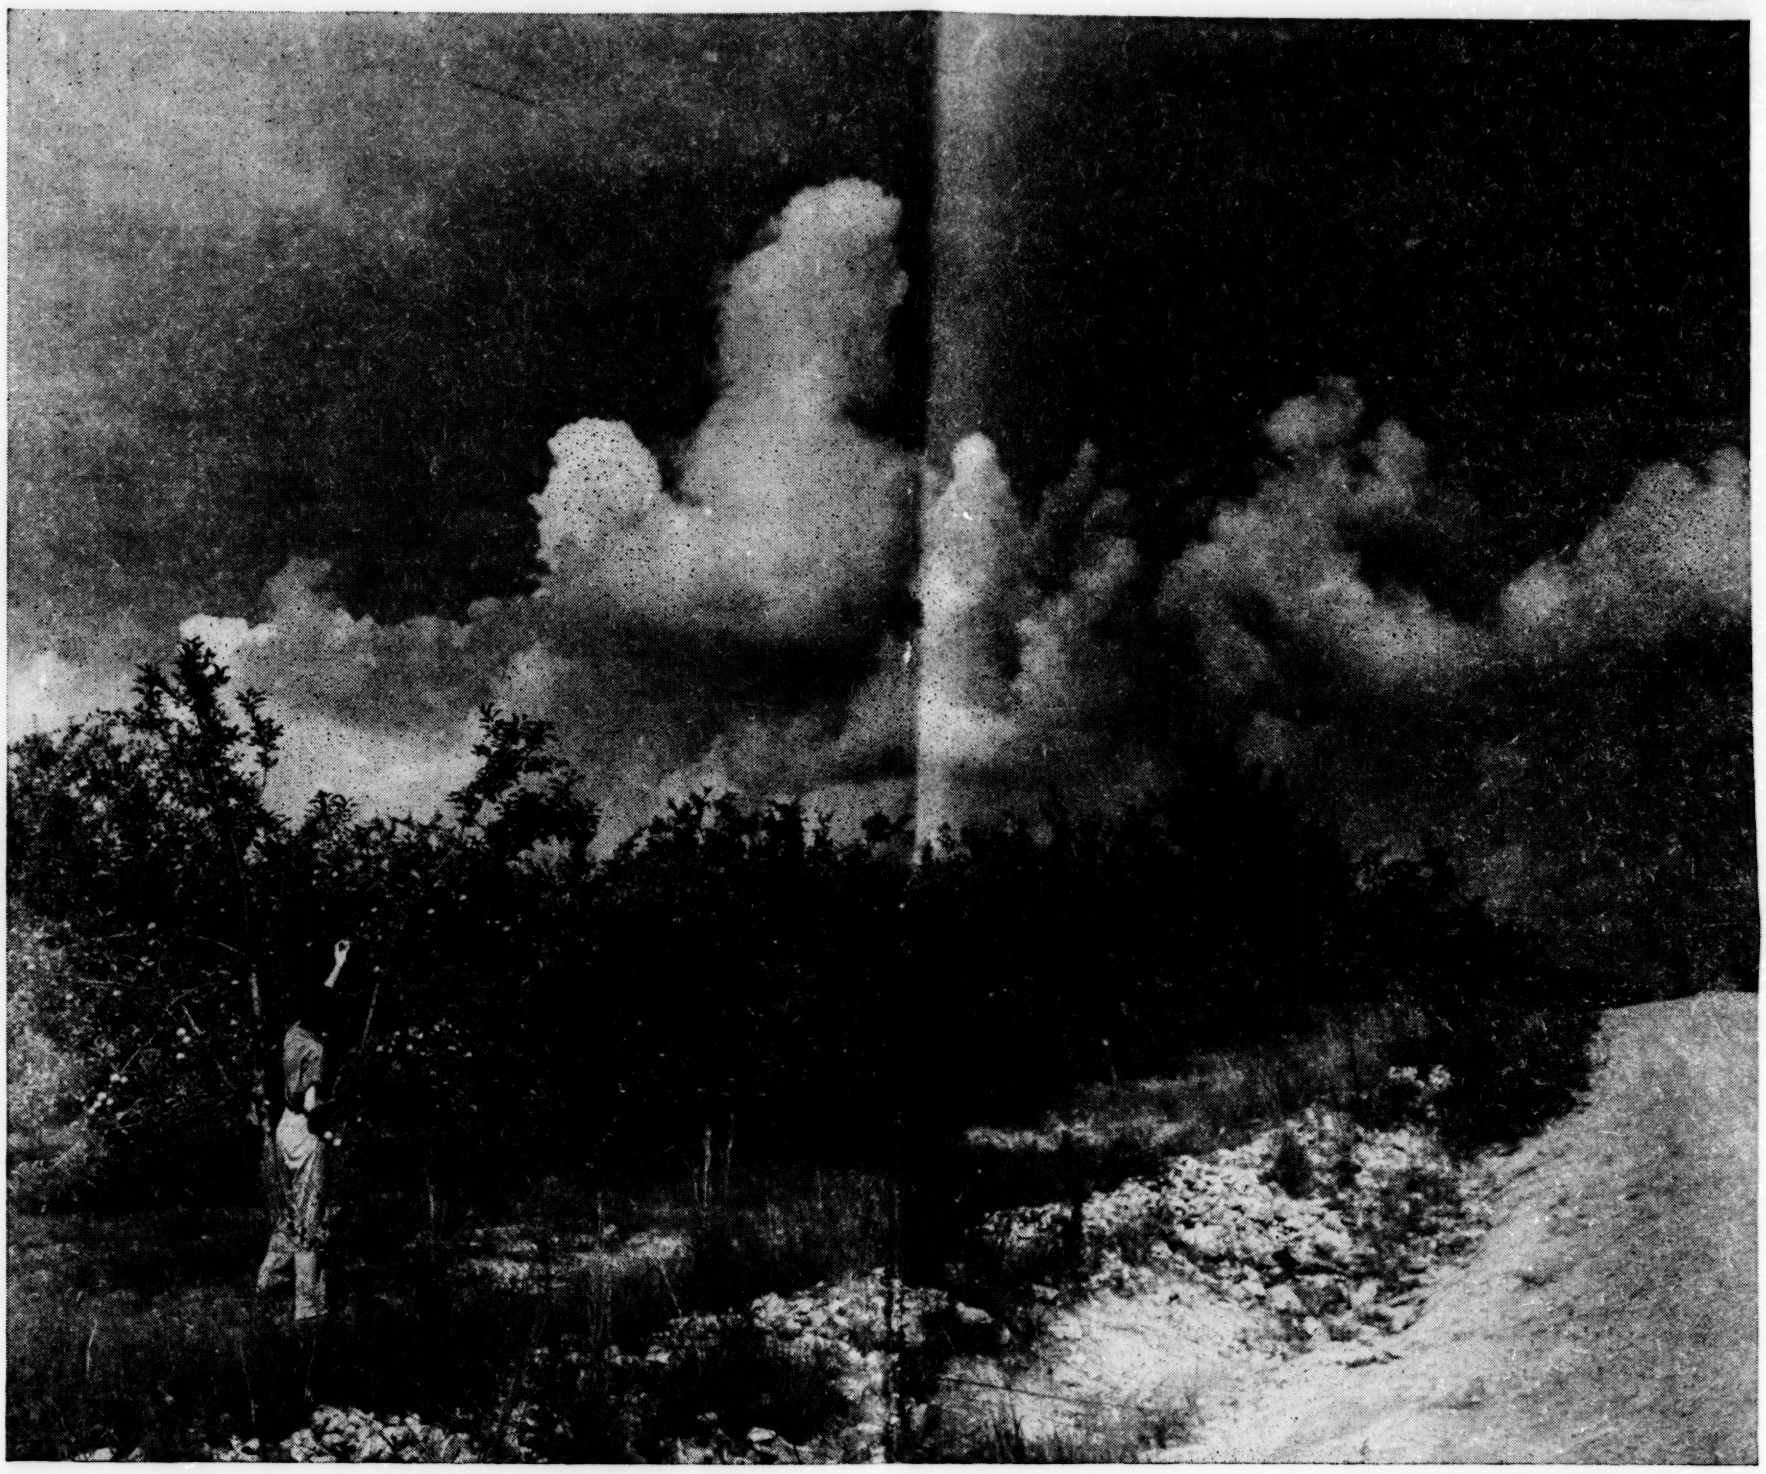
Time of Ingathering



One-Half of Orphanage Income Is Received at Thanksgiving Time

From time immemorial the autumn season has been the time of ingathering. In the apple orchard, all during the year the fruit trees have been developing and maturing their fruit to bring it to ripened perfection. The most beautiful season in the orchard is in apple blossom time when the fragrant blooms are lovely to see. But the most satisfying time is when the trees are ladened with the red or golden apples, then all the care and work which have been spent to bring the fruit to perfection is repaid.

This is the time too, "When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock." Or should we say the fodder is in the silo? That is less picturesque but more economical.

Here at Presbyterian Orphans' Home we are very grateful for a fine apple crop. We have had a very good year in regard to other crops too, for which we are thankful. We join the fellowship of all others in expressing to our God, the Giver of every good gift, "the thanksgiving of our hearts."

This is also a time of ingathering of the funds required to run this big Home for our many children with their multitude of needs. During more than half the year we do not receive enough funds to meet our needs, but this special offering has for several years taken care of the amount needed.

We have only to go back ten or more years to find a very different situation. Then the Home was in debt and not able to keep up

The Paper Shortage Hits Presbyterian Orphans' Home

You will note that the paper on which this paper is printed is different from the kind we have been using. This was a special concession from the firm that supplies us. This company has been expecting a supply of paper for several months. If it does not soon arrive our next Messenger will have to revert to newsprint.

You will note also that the paper on which our Thanksgiving leaflet is printed is of lower quality. Also we have had to reduce the number of leaflets. There are one hundred thousand Presbyterians in North Carolina. We would like to print a leaflet for each one, but we only had paper for 60,000. We hope that these will be so handled

The friends of Presbyterian Orphans' Home were made glad by the news recently of the wonderful bequest by Mrs. William N. Reynolds of Winston-Salem to Presbyterian Orphans' Home. The statement in the will of Mrs. Reynolds is as follows: "To my trustees one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) in trust to pay the net income therefrom toward the maintenance and support of the Barium Springs Orphanage."

This will give a wonderful boost to our income from trusts and endowments which have been decreased of late years by the low ering rates of interest.

Besides the Orphans' Home, Mrs. Reynolds left large bequests to Union Seminary, Davidson College, Peace College, the Synod of North Carolina in trust for aged ministers and many other bequests. In all about six million dollars was left by Mrs. Reynolds for benevolent and charitable purposes.

with its bills. Much credit for leadership in correcting this condition should go to a group of men in Albemarle Presbytery who led the way in organizing and informing the churches of the needs and opportunities at Barium. So the present organization of the Synod was set up with a chairman for the Synod, one for each presbytery and local chairman in each church. For many years this work was most efficiently led by Mr. J. A. Cannon of Concord, who is now president of the Board of Regents. The chairman of the the Synod now is Mr. C. Spears Hicks of Durham, who has given of his time and talents most unsparingly. He is doing a fine job.

Chairmen of Presbyteries are as follows:

Albemarle, James G. Johnson; Concord, Richard E. Lackey; Fayetteville, H. H. McKethan; Granville, J. R. Webb; Kings Mountain, T. N. James; Mecklenburg, A. Ray Morrow; Orange, M. E. Yount; Wilmington, Wm. L. McIntire; Winston-Salem, R. S. Haltiwanger.

We are very grateful to these fine men for giving of their time and efforts. We know that they will receive a ready response from the churches of Synod and that this will be a time of ingatering for Presbyterian Orphans' Home.
